

AUTHORS

Click cover image to purchase or read more.

Embracing Materialism and Letting it Go

Michael D'Aleo
An experiential guide to overcoming an object-based world conception.
Michael D'Aleo teaches astronomy and metal work to our 12th grade each year.

Be Still and others

Winslow Eliot
"This sincere narrative has crossed cultural barriers to calm troubled souls seeking answers to complex problems."
Winslow Eliot is an alumni parent and a retired teacher and former board member of our school.

The Supposed Huntsman

Katie Fowley
"Drawing inspiration from Brothers Grimm fairy tales and troubadour tradition, Fowley's poems elate and interrogate, ever aware that 'childhood is so intensely serious.'"

Katie Fowley teaches English at our school.

A Grief Sublime

Beth Robbins
"... this book is a most lyrical, beautiful and profound rumination on grief, poetry, resurrection." —Maira Kalman
Beth Robbins, alumni parent, taught at our school for more than 15 years.

How the Future Can Save Us and The Story of Waldorf Education in the United States

Stephen Sagarin
"Offers a fresh, hopeful, unconventional, and reinvigorating take on Waldorf education ... and how it still holds promise for the future."

Stephen Sagarin is Director, history teacher, and alumni parent at our school.

Kalifornia Blu

Kendell Shaffer
"Arrested for skateboarding at three o'clock in the morning at the Venice Beach Skate Park, Kalifornia Blu's life takes an unexpected turn when her rock star absent mom doesn't show up at her sentencing hearing."

Short stories

Samantha Stier
Ms. Stier's short stories have appeared in a number of literary zines.
Samantha Stier, Class of 2006, teaches English and history at our school.

STUDENT AUTHORS

These books, available on Amazon, were published as Junior or Senior projects by students at our school.

The Side Effects of Losing Your Mind

Shannon Folmer, Class of 2017
Poems

The Bones Collection

Ava Young, Class of 2025
Poems

A Place of In Betweens

Mattie Vandiver, Class of 2021
Poems and photographs

Visit us to learn more:
Berkshire Waldorf High School

